(1) The Temple which is the owner of the lands,

(2) The Archaks who were in enjoyment of the lands,

(3) The persons who have purchased the ~~[illegible]~~ right of Cultivating the lands

35 & The Cancellation of the Sale, Parties 2 & 3 agree the former because their possession of the lands would thereby be disturbed and the latter either to oblige the Archaks or because they have agreed to give more than what the lands can reasonably be expected to yield.

36 But their Consent alone is not Enough. There is the Muzzai muhammadan whose interests have to be protected. The D. Commrs. Latest Report shows that the Temple has made no saving out of the income of the lands till now. If the Sale are Confirmed the Temple will

There is one of the collusion between the Archaka & the sale purchasers in the result that the Temple both suffer. Under Section 21 of the Mysore Muzrai Regulation.

The appellants above named beg to file this appeal against the confirmation of the sale of the - Inam Lands belonging to the Sri Venkataramanaswami Temple, Kallahalli, Kankanhalli Taluk, passed by the Deputy Commissioner Bangalore District, in his Order

No.L.C. 308 of 19-20 dated 24th June 1920 and set forth the following grounds of objection to the order appealed from, viz.-

1. That the temple being a minor Institution, the lease of the Inam Lands to strangers by public auction without any notice to the Inamdars is repugnant to order No. 2594-602 Muz.366-18-2 dated 25th February 1919.

2. That the facts of the case do not justify the disturbance of the appellants' long possession of one and all of the Inam Lands.

3. That the learned Deputy Commissioner has not taken into consideration that the Taluk Amildar the Sub Division Officer and the Temple Dharmadarsis are of opinion that the lease of Inam Lands in question does not promote the interests of the Institution.

4. That the two garden lands now ordered to be leased out, owe their present existence to the toil and care of of the appellants and their ancestors for over a number of years and it is inequitable that the appellants should be suddenly deprived of the fruits of their hard labour.

5. That as a result of unhealthy competition and party feelings, the lease amount has been raised to a disproportionate extent and there is no likelihood of the amount being realised uniformally these five years without detriment to the permanent interests of the Temple.

6. That these appellants as loyal and dutiful subjects are even ready and willing to obey such orders as may be passed by the benign Government in - n the interests of the Institution as well as those of the Temple servants.

Wherefore the appellants pray that the order of the Deputy Commissioner confirming the sale of the Temple Lands be set aside and their possession and enjoyment of the same be undisturbed.

They further pray that the execution of the order in appeal be stayed, pending final disposal of this appeal

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.2608/Muzrai.116-20-8 dated 1st/3rd February 1921 calling for certain information re: the income and expenditure of Sri Venkataramanaswami Temple at Kallahalli in Kankanhalli - Taluk, I have the honor to state that the Amildar of Kankanahalli Taluk reports that the average annual income of the temple from the Inam lands is 18 candies or about Rs.280/- at the existing rates. The average - annual expenditure incurred by the Archak is about Rs.538/-. As the - amount of expenditure was in excess of the income, nothing was saved for the temple. No proper accounts were maintained by the Archak either - for the income or for the expenditure. Two books containing some notes in pencil were anyhow produced by him. On the basis of the information contained in these two note books the enclosed statement has been prepared. Under these circumstances it will be seen that the expenditure has been more than the income.

The entire vernacular records are herewith submitted.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Deputy Commissioner,

Petition Registered No.474 dated 26th August 1930, from Krishnachar and other Archaks appealing against the Deputy Commissioner's order confirming the sale of the Inam lands endowed to Sri Venkataramanaswami Temple at Kallanahalli Kankanhalli Taluk.

(2) Correspondence ending with letter No.LR1/Accl dated 2nd April 1931, from the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District, submitting the records of enquiry connected with the case.

Order No. 4-2-3, Exemption-Lands-Inam (1) dated Bangalore, the 27th May 1931.

The temple of Sri Venkataramaswami at Kallahalli, Kankanhalli Taluk, is a Minor Institution endowed with Inam lands in the village of Kallahalli Attuhara, Timmahalli Kannasandra and Kankanhalli.

The right to hold suitable portion of land for a period of 5 years from 1926 was put up to auction and the highest Annual rent offered was Rs.1,050/- and it is recommended by the Deputy Commissioner

Against this order, Krishnachar other temple archaks have appealed to Government and they say that the land

It is reported that the purchasers of the ancien have not appeared to execute mutchalikas in spite of notices issued to them. Though this is no ground for cancelling the sale or for releasing the purchasers from the obligations which they have incurred, --- Government resolve in view of the facts that the temple is in a good condition and that worship is properly conducted, and to set aside the sale on the understanding that the temple is continued to be maintained in a satisfactory condition and service also conducted regularly. Suitable muchalikas should be obtained from the -- Archaks in regard to the proper performance of all their duties, the keeping of the institution always in a state of good repair and the contribution of a reasonable sum to be fixed by the Deputy Commissioner in consultation with the Muzrai Dept (towards the Muzrai Fund.) The Archaks should be distinctly given to understand that they have no right to the Inam lands and that it is open to Government at any time to -- resume them.
